

:30 PSA Live Read/Script – Homeowner Focused

April is Safe Digging Month. If you're planning an outdoor DIY project, state law requires you contact JULIE before you dig. Every project. Every time. Don't knock out Internet, power or other critical services in your community. Know what's below. Have underground utility lines on your property marked before planting, building, adding, or fixing anything. Keep your family, your neighbors and yourself safe. Visit JULIE Before You Dig dot com. It's a free service.

:30 PSA Live Read/Script – Professional Excavator/Contractor Focused

April is Safe Digging Month...and the start of the busy digging season. If your projects involve any type of excavation, Illinois law requires you contact JULIE before you dig to have underground utility lines on your job site marked. Every project. Every time. To protect critical services, keep your crews safe, stay on time and on budget, and avoid costly penalties—know what's below. Visit JULIE Before You Dig dot com. It's a free service.